

I oppose weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law.
Before this Law existed being at home meant being subjected to constant harrassement. We never picked up the phone, letting the answering machine take each call. Now we freely answer the phone to friends and family and have uninterrupted meals together. Thanks you for your consideration.